Precision Financial Services Enhances the Wealth Management Process

Mine Hill, New Jersey, 1/4/07 — Precision Financial Services, Inc. recently affiliated with one of the nation's leading consulting organizations for wealth advisors. With this new affiliation, Precision Financial Services, Inc. now has access to a network of over 500 of the country's top wealth advisors, all of whom share a passion for excellent service and expert advice. Membership into the organization is by application only, and each firm accepted has to meet certain standards of excellence.

"The philosophy of our new affiliate organization is, 'No one of us is as smart as all of us,'" commented Michael Babyak Jr. II, President, of Precision Financial Services, Inc. "Simply put, my new colleagues believe in sharing their best ideas and strategies for helping clients through the maze of the wealth-planning process," he added. Through semi-annual workshops, monthly educational conference calls, and as-needed consulting support, Precision Financial Services, Inc. now has a dramatically expanded network of professionals who can assist them in meeting their clients' wealth planning needs.

In addition, Precision Financial Services, Inc. will receive additional support in enhancing its infrastructure and elevating its level of client service. "World class advice coupled with world class service is what we continually strive for at Precision Financial Services, Inc., Michael Babyak Jr. II said. "The Quest For Excellence Council will help us do both."
