Randolph, New Jersey (April 18, 2007) - Randolph High School's TV Production & Mass Media Department recently announced the unveiling of a fifteen foot awards cabinet donated by Precision Financial Services, Inc. and Heritage Community Bank. As the recipient of several prestigious awards including five Junior Emmy Awards and several AAA state and national awards, the department will now have a venue to showcase the students' extraordinary achievements.

According to Michael Babyak Sr., founder of Precision Financial Services, Inc. located in Mine Hill, NJ and Chairman of the Board for Morris County based Heritage Community Bank, "All five of my children are Randolph High School graduates. As a father and local business owner, I know how important it is support our children and their future. We are proud of these student's accomplishments and want to assist them in anyway we can. In this case, the students needed the financial resources to display their competitive honors." In addition to the Babyak family contribution, Mr. Babyak reached out to Peter Kenny, President and CEO of Heritage Community Bank. According to Mr. Kenny, "We became aware of the program through Mike Sr. and recognized it as an opportunity to make a lasting contribution to the high school. Many people are aware of the numerous awards that the program has won and the talented individuals that have graduated from the program. As the only independently owned commercial bank headquartered in both Randolph and Morris County we wanted to show our support for the community and thought that this would be a great way to make a permanent contribution."

Dr. Richard Christie, Instructor for TV Production & Mass Media at Randolph HS, has been working with both gentlemen to ensure the department's needs are met. "We are displaying our three Junior Emmy Awards, AAA state and national awards and Great American Smoke Out Awards, just to name a few. Additionally, several of my students have won many "news" related awards such as the Herald and Kumar writers articles."
